

ICCJ Conference 2015 in Rome - Registration opened!

Anette Adelman | 28.02.2015

The ICCJ is excited to announce that online registration for this year's annual conference in Rome has been officially opened on 27th February, 2015.

This year's conference, celebrating the 50th anniversary of the Second Vatican Council's declaration "Nostra Aetate," will be held from Sunday, 28th June until Wednesday, 1st July at a conference hotel overlooking the Vatican and St. Peter's Basilica. Guest speakers include a wide range of Jewish and Christian scholars and religious leaders, who will help us to reflect on the conference theme: "The 50th Anniversary of Nostra Aetate: The Past, Present, and Future of the Christian-Jewish Relationship".

Held in collaboration with the Amicizia Ebraico-Cristiana di Roma the 2015 gathering is also being actively supported by the Pontifical Commission for Religious Relations with the Jews and an impressive cross-section of local, national and international Jewish and Christian bodies.

The 2015 Rome Conference Planning Committee is composed of representatives of the organizations co-hosting this conference:

Chairs:

Philip A. Cunningham
(ICCJ President)
Marco Morselli
(AEC Roma President)

Members:

Anette Adelman (ICCJ General Secretary)
Massimo De Angelis (AEC Roma Committee of Experts)
Celia Deutsch (Sisters of Sion)
Miriam Girardi (Focolari Movement)
Giovanna Grenga (AEC Roma Executive Board)
Norbert Hofmann (Vatican)
Ivete Holthman (Sisters of Sion)
Don Filippo Morlacchi (Vicariato di Roma)
Eric Noffke (AEC Roma Executive Board)
Maria Pinto (Incontri Romani)
Joseph Sievers (AEC Roma Committee of Experts)
Deborah Weissman (ICCJ Immediate Past President)

Because also this year's conference is expected to attract a large number of registrants, we strongly encourage you to plan now to attend, and to register as soon as possible.

Further programme details and registration instructions will be available on the ICCJ Web site (www.iccj.org) by the date of the opening of registration, 27th February 2015, and any additional questions may be sent to: info@iccj.org.

ICCJ and the Amicizia Ebraico-Cristiana di Roma look forward to meeting you in Rome!

Editorial remarks

Anette Adelman is ICCJ's General Secretary.